

CIVIL WAR DAYS

February 20-21, 2016

Experience a part of Arizona History

Did you know Arizona was a Confederate Territory for a short time?
One battle was fought at Picacho Peak, just north of Tucson!

SPECIAL CIVIL WAR BATTLES

There will be special scheduled battle re-enactments both Saturday, February 20 and Sunday February 21, 2016. These battles and additional demonstrations and programs are included in price of admission.

Be sure and visit the Union and Confederate displays and camp sites!

Admission Rates

Adult (12 and over) $17.95      Child (4-11) $10.95

Prices are subject to applicable 6.1% tax

Great food is available for purchase at Big Jakes BBQ, the Pony Express restaurant and your favorite beverages are available at the Grand Palace Hotel and Saloon!

COME MAKE A DAY OF IT!

An amazing adventure and experience to remember! From daring gunfights and stunts to rip-roarin' musical revues and comedies to panning for gold, Old Tucson offers exciting Old West entertainment. Take a guided tour highlighting our scenery and movie history. Get gussied up in some old-fashioned duds for an old-time photo or shop for gifts and mementos in our fine stores. Set a spell in the Grand Palace Saloon and then take a miniature train ride into the beautiful Sonoran Desert.

* Additional charge for trail rides, stagecoach and Pan for Gold attraction
Check daily program for times and locations of battles & events.

For more information contact

OLD TUCSON

WWW.OldTucson.com

201 South Kinney Road * Tucson, AZ * 85735

(520)883-0100

Presented by the

Arizona Civil War Council * SW Living History Association
Arizona Sonora Western Heritage Foundation * Old Tucson

