

CIVIL WAR DAYS!

Arizona History comes Alive!

February 10-11, 2018

Did you know Arizona was a Confederate Territory for a short time?
The Battle of Picacho Peak, just north of Tucson, occurred in 1862!

THE BATTLE AT BITTER CREEK

Experience special battle re-enactments both Saturday, February 10 and Sunday February 11, 2018. There will be question and answer sessions along with additional demonstrations and programs throughout the weekend - all included in price of admission!

Visit the Union and Confederate displays and camp sites!

Admission Rates

Adult (12 and over) $19.95 Child (4-11) $11.95

Prices are subject to change / applicable 6.1% tax

Great food is available for purchase at Big Jakes BBQ, the Pony Express restaurant and your favorite beverages are available at the Grand Palace Hotel and Saloon!

WHY NOT MAKE A DAY OF IT!

A wild western experience to remember! From exciting gunfights to rip-roarin' musical revues; comedy shows to panning for gold, Old Tucson offers great Old West entertainment. Take a guided tour highlighting our scenery and movie history. Get gussied up in some old-fashioned duds for an old-time photo or shop for gifts and mementos in our fine stores. Set a spell in the Grand Palace Saloon and then take a miniature train ride into the beautiful Sonoran Desert.

* Additional charge for trail rides, stagecoach and Pan for Gold attraction
Check daily program for times and locations of battles & events.

For more information visit

OLD TUCSON.COM

201 South Kinney Road * Tucson, AZ * 85735

(520)883-0100

Presented by the

★ The Arizona Civil War Council ★

★ Southwest Living History Association ★ Old Tucson ★

ARIZONA SONORA
WESTERN HERITAGE
Foundation